

Community Engagement Board Co-Chair (CEB)

Rodrigo Moheno, Mexico

Mexico Vivo Foundation

Rodrigo Moheno is the Secretary General and co-founder of Fundacion Mexico Vivo. Rodrigo is also serving as Secretary of the Board of the Mexican Federation for Sexual Education and Sexology; Member of the Directive Board of ImPrEP Mexico; Cofounder of the Citizens Council for HIV & STI of Mexico City; Member of the Group for the Prevention of Teenage Pregnancy in Mexico City. He is author and editor of numerous publications on HIV/AIDS and sexual and reproductive health. He has also published essays and columns at El Universal, Urbi et Orbi, Le Monde Diplomatique, among others. He has studied Political Science and International Relations at the Centro de Investigación y Docencias Económicas and served as Parliamentary Advisor of the LVII Legislative Assembly of the Congress of Union of Mexico. For more than 20 years, Rodrigo has been activist and speaker for Human Rights, Rights of the Children, Youth, for Sexual and Reproductive Health Rights, education and public health in diverse forums in Mexico, Latin America, Europe, US and the UN. He has collaborated in the creation and implementation of educational programs, digital platforms and tools, health services, media and campaigns to promote sexual health of the population of Mexico and Latin America.